

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

13th/14th June, 2026

Welcome:

Good morning/evening my name isand I welcome you to Mass at St Mark's. The theme of today's readings is call and discipleship. We are called by God to proclaim the good news of salvation and to be the healing touch of Christ in our world.

We begin our Mass with an Acknowledgement of Country:

St Mark's respectfully acknowledges the past and present traditional owners of this land, the Jagerra people. We remember the many footprints that have gone before us on this land and waterways. We are thankful to be praying and gathering on Jagerra country.

Please stand for the entrance hymn.

Intercessions:

Priest: Lord you gave us hope through Christ's offering of Himself for us. With confidence in your bounty, we offer these prayers to you.

Reader: That all Bishops, as successors to the Apostles, will guide the Church toward fuller unity. (pause) Lord Hear Us

Reader: That all the baptised will heed the call of Jesus and go out to the world, proclaiming God's kingdom in their words and deeds.
(pause) Lord Hear Us:

Reader: That we will have the courage to use our gifts for the service of others.(pause) Lord Hear Us

Reader: That God will give courage and insight to those who work to establish peace among nations. (pause) Lord Hear Us

Reader: That the Spirit of Christ will strengthen and renew those who are sick and those who care for them. (pause) Lord Hear Us

Reader: That all who have died in our Parish will find eternal rest with You.
(pause) Lord Hear Us

Priest: As Jesus chose His Apostles to proclaim the Kingdom of Heaven, help us to carry on Your work, as your disciples. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen
