REFLECTION

Dining with around two hundred poor and vulnerable people in the Borgo Laudato Si', a garden inspired by Pope Francis' teaching on care for creation, Pope Leo showed the world's media that the state of the earth and the welfare of vulnerable people are entwined. Care for one goes in hand with care for the other.

Pope Leo opened the event with remarkable unscripted words. 'I have come without a prepared speech,' he said, 'but with hunger. A hunger for justice, a hunger for genuine charity.'

The Pope expressed his 'hunger for a Church that truly knows how to open its doors, to welcome and receive everyone. A Church where there is love for all, where no one is an enemy, and where we all know how to live in reconciliation, forgiveness, and peace.'

'Whenever we come together,' he emphasised, 'whenever we share this spirit of encounter around the same table – the one table where Jesus is also present with us – we are truly building a different world: a world of hope, a world that is light.'

'Let us work together', he concluded, 'and always strive to live this experience of Church, of justice, of peace, and of love.'

Annual Catholic Campaign Second Collection – 22 & 23 August

Together, We Can Make a Difference

The Annual Catholic Campaign (ACC) brings parishes across the Archdiocese together to support vital ministries that serve people in our local communities.

Your generosity helps to:

-  Support Catholic education for children in need through the Mary MacKillop Fund.
-  Prepare seminarians to become future shepherds of our faith.
-  Care for the accommodation and healthcare needs of more than 60 retired priests.
-  Provide support and hope through Centacare, including assistance for families experiencing domestic violence, homelessness, hospital and prison chaplaincy, and post-release support.
-  Strengthen grassroots ministries that make a difference in our local communities.

St Mark's Parish will hold the ACC Second Collection on 22 & 23 August. ACC brochures are available at the church entrance and on the pews for anyone wishing to make a donation. Archbishop Shane Mackinlay's homily will also be played to provide further information about the campaign.

Together, as one Catholic family, we can share God's love and make a difference. Thank you for your generosity and support.
